

My Wedding Services

The Dream: Full Service Planning and Design

Planning starting immediately

This service is ideal for couples who want to jump-start their planning process. This collection offers an enjoyable and seamless approach to planning your celebration whether at a private estate or an established venue. It includes planning, design, and event management of every aspect from start to finish. From building and managing your dream team of vendors, selecting the most perfect location, budget consultation to determine your financial comfort zone, benchmarks, and comprehensive checklist, attending meetings on the couple's behalf (especially if you are planning out of state), floor plans, and design services that WOW, and most importantly managing your day flawlessly. We take care of it all, giving you and your guests an experience and memories they will cherish for a lifetime.

Prices start from $2400

The Desire: Design and Event Management

Planning starts 6 months before the wedding

Ideally suited to serve couples who are hosting at an established venue and have their key vendors secured who are now looking for a planner and designer to step in and spearhead the creative process. We want you to DREAM BIG. We create a completely custom, stunning, unique design plan that you and your guests will swoon over. We step in to take over vendor management to leave the hosts to enjoy themselves and execute the entire event.

Prices start from $1200

The Wish: Event Management

Planning Starts 1 month before wedding

Best suited for couples that have secured their venue and dream team, all contracts have been signed, all design plans have been implemented, you are in the last six months of planning and are finally looking to relax and enjoy the planning process. Our team happily steps in to take over all vendor and event management, as your project manager/coordinator. We make sure that all boxes have been checked, create all detailed timelines and logistical coordination, and execute your day as seamlessly and stress-free as intended. We understand that your celebration is truly a production and, on your day, you should be able to enjoy every aspect and element with your guests.

Prices start from $600

All packages will include a one hour consultation where we can discuss your ideas, objectives and ideas for the project.
